FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Konwinski Cabinets State-of-the Art Equipment to Build Upon Years of High-Quality Craftsmanship

April 22nd, 2019 - Mt. Pleasant, MI -- Konwinski Cabinets, headquartered in Mt. Pleasant, MI, recently modified their shop floor to make room for two new pieces of state-of-the art equipment. The company added a CNC (Computer Numerically Controlled) machine and an Edge Bander approximately forty-five days ago and are already seeing increased efficiency and productivity as a result.

“With customers choosing to work with us project after project, we knew we needed to look at ways we could improve overall efficiency to keep up with demand and be ready for whatever lies on the horizon for us,” states Andy Theisen, Vice President and Co-Owner of Konwinski Construction. “This machinery allows for even more flexibility and frees up members of our team to do more custom work than ever before.”

Konwinski Cabinets tackles a variety of custom projects across the United States. From custom cabinetry at hundreds of Buffalo Wild Wings across the country to solid surface tops for equipment packages produced by Delfield, Konwinski Cabinets is always looking for ways to deliver the best product and experience to its customers, many of whom who have been working with the company for over twenty years.

Other capital investments made include upgrading the air handling and electrical capacity of their facility. In total, $250,000 in capital investments were made.

“The team at Konwinski Cabinets is dedicated to its customers, its employees, and the region as a whole,” states CEO and President of Middle Michigan Development Corporation (MMDC) Jim McBryde. “By upgrading their equipment and taking time to really think through how these changes would enhance not only their productivity, but positively impact those they work with is a testament to that dedication.”

MMDC works closely with companies like Konwinski Construction and Konwinski Cabinets across Clare and Isabella counties, providing services that support both business growth and retention. These services are provided free of charge and often allow companies to connect with funding and incentive opportunities to support capital improvements such as this and job creation.
